Welcome to Rev. Bert Radford

Today we welcome Rev. Bert Radford as guest preacher. Bert is an ordained minister holding credentials with Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec. He has a B.A. and B.D. from McMaster University and a M.Ed. from The University of Toronto. After ordination and serving two churches he became an elementary school teacher and principal, returning to ministry in Burlington Baptist Church in 2000. Since his retirement Bert has served several United and Presbyterian Churches in interim ministry, the most recent being Ryerson United Church in Ancaster. For several years Bert represented The Canadian Association for Baptist Freedoms as a Governor of the Canadian Council of Churches and has contributed regularly to that association's publication The Bulletin. Bert is married to Mae; they live in Burlington Ontario and have two daughters and four grandchildren.

Susan will be on sabbatical for the Sundays of October 22, 29 and November 5. Thanks to our Deacons for planning worship and to David Jones for being our Pastoral Care contact. For the first two weeks, she is attending classes for her Doctor of Ministry program and the third week, at a Bible conference delivering a talk on the value of following the Lectionary (which she learned right here at MacNeill!)

Pastoral Care

David Jones will be coordinating Pastoral Care from Oct 16 to Oct 29. If you have a need to support, please contact David at his number in your church directory.

Super Sock Sunday!! Nov 12

Your Outreach Board is planning a Sock Sunday.... Between now and Nov 12, you are invited to donate new socks to be given to Hamilton's homeless population by Mission Services. The SOX BOX will be at the front of the church, ready to receive!

Advent Planning

We are beginning our planning for Advent soon and if you are interested in joining this group, please contact Susan at sstjohn.macneill@gmail.com. Our planning time will be on a Sunday after Worship either November 12 or November 19 ... yet to be finalized.

A Note From Your Nominating Committee

Now, and in the next few weeks, we will be contacting and asking many of you to serve on Church Council, either as a member of a board, or on the executive of Council. Be aware that we are approaching you because we believe you have the qualities, and are capable of the time commitment, as outlined below:

1. Sensitivity to the needs and concerns of all who make up our congregation,
2. Readiness to share the work for which the board you join is responsible.
3. Each board has requirements which relate to its particular focus. We hope those who are enthusiastic, creative and imaginative will agree to serve
4. Willingness to work collaboratively with other MacNeill boards in the committee process
5. Time to attend meetings, including:
 - a. Congregational meetings; the Annual Meeting, (January) and the Mid-Year Meeting, (June)
 - b. Council meetings each year, in January, February, May and October;
 - c. Board meetings; each board plans its own meetings, six seems to be an average number.
